

May 1st Tax Payments

In response to several questions regarding tax payments, at this time, the State of New Jersey has not permitted municipalities to change the May 1st property tax deadline or extend the grace period beyond the statutory 10-day maximum.

If the State permits either of these changes, the Township will review and act accordingly.