

News

Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders
Office of Public Information
609-265-5020
www.co.burlington.nj.us

For Immediate Release

Nicholas Gangemi: Cell (856) 651-8241

May 5, 2020

Charlene Webster: Cell (856) 906-6848

Event: Drive-up Food Distribution

Who: Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders is sponsoring a Drive-up Food Distribution Event

Partners: Holman Enterprises, Food Bank of South Jersey & Farmers Against Hunger

When: Friday, May 8, 2020 from 1PM to 3PM

Where: TIC Building, 2001 Bishops Gate Blvd., Mt. Laurel, 08054
(must enter from Briggs Road – vehicles cannot enter from Route 38)

Details: “The Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders is dedicated to supporting our residents during this world-wide public health crisis so that they remain safe, have a place to stay, and have enough to eat,” said Burlington County Freeholder Director Felicia Hopson. “This is an uncertain time and many of our community members are struggling to pay for basic necessities. It is our hope that the Drive-up Food Distribution events will help anyone in need.”

- First Come First Served basis. Burlington County Freeholders are currently scheduling additional food distribution dates for May.
- Vehicles only – no pedestrian traffic
- Limit one box per family
- Keep windows closed & vehicle occupants must wear masks